Ark Boulton Academy

Dear Parents,

I am writing to inform you about a compulsory revision day that is being held on Wednesday 5th January, 9am to 2pm, for all students studying I-Media. This is to support them with their exam on Monday 10th January which gives them 33% of their final grade.

All students are expected to attend this day in full school uniform and with full equipment. They will be provided with hot food and a drink, but we advise they bring their own water bottle.

This revision day will ensure that your child has the best opportunity in their Creative I-Media exam. The day will consist of revision activities, practice exam questions and a chance for any last-minute questions to be answered.

Phone calls and home visits will be carried out for any student not attending.

During the winter break, we also expect, all students, to continue with their revision. Students have been given a revision booklet and past exam papers to help with their revision. They must complete these and bring them with them on Wednesday 5th January for their revision day.

More resources can also be found at the following websites:

- <https://www.youtube.com/c/ComputerScienceTutor> - Videos covering every part of the I-Media course
- <https://www.ocr.org.uk/qualifications/cambridge-nationals/creative-imedia-level-1-2-award-certificate-j807-j817/> - Past exam papers and Mark Schemes

If you have any questions about the day, please contact Mr M Ali in the first instance at M.Ali@arkboulton.org and he will be able to answer any queries.

We are looking forward to seeing you all on Wednesday 5th January at 9am.

Yours Sincerely

Mohammed Ali
